JALAUN DISTRICT

ALLAHABAD:
SUPERINTENDENT, PRINTING AND STATIONERY, UNITED PROVINCES

1934

PREFACE

Government Order No. 2642/I—557, dated the 20th January, 1933, required revision of the district gazetteer. This volume, which will be called Volume D in accordance with that order, contains all the necessary tables and lists maintained in the previous edition. I have thoroughly overhauled, corrected and brought them as up to date as possible. A list of dak bungalows and inspection houses is also added to the appendix in this edition.

The text of the Gazetteer was not touched at all on the occasion of the issue of the previous edition, viz. Volume C; although it was quite necessary in view of the important changes that took place since after 1914. The above-mentioned Government order also requires now bringing the Gazetteer up to date.

The previous orders of the Government required the noting on the inter-leaved blank pages the important changes from time to time as they happened. But after 1914, when Mr. E. A. Phelps had revised the Gazetteer and noted the necessary additions and alterations in Volume B, (no notes were available to me. The task of making the necessary amendments was, therefore, rather difficult, due especially to my being quite new to this district. However, I have compiled this exhaustive supplement noting herein all the necessary up-to-date information and changes, and have tried to make this edition as comprehensive as possible. I hope it will prove useful purpose to its readers.

For the future I would suggest the insertion of Government order in Volume D of all the gazetteers drawing attention to the necessity of noting the necessary changes from time to time for utilization in the next decade.

ORAI :

The 31st May, 1933.

B. N. JHA, I.C.S.,

District Officer.

VOLUME XXII (D)

HAMIRPUR DISTRICT

ALLAHABAD:
SUPERINTENDENT, PRINTING AND STATIONERY, UNITED PROVINCES

1934

*Additions and alterations to volume A of the Hamirpur
District Gazetteer*

This brief supplement containing necessary additions and alterations to the text of A, B and C volumes has been compiled under G. O. no. 2642/I—557, dated the 29th January, 1933.

Page 1, lines 1 and 2 add the following :

By Government notification no. 4602/IB-353-24, dated the 20th September, 1925, the Khanna-Ichauli Circle of tahsil Banda constituting the major portion of the trans-Ken area comprising 40 villages, with an aggregate area of 147 square miles, was transferred from district Banda to tahsil Maudaha in this district. This took effect from 1st October, 1925, when as a measure of economy tahsils Badausa, Kamasin and Pailani in district Banda were abolished and amalgamated with other tahsils.

One square mile from the area of village Bhendi, pargana Jalalpur of this district was transferred to Beri State as a result of a settlement in a boundary dispute.

Substitute "1,561,439" for "1,448,314" and "2,438" for "2,263."

Add the following to the history of the floods in the Jumna and the Betwa :

"In August, 1916, there was an abnormal rise of the Chambal River which joins the Jumna in the Etawah District. This along with the Jumna water was responsible for the high flood on 28th August, 1916, when Hamirpur was submerged—Mirapur, Bhelawan and part of Rameri was under water. The district jail had to be evacuated as water was several feet deep inside the enclosure and prisoners were temporarily located at the Sessions Court house which is situated on high ground. The iron bridge over the Ruhain Nala, linking Hamirpur to Kalpi, was washed away and still remains to be rebuilt.

The low country across the Betwa River was devastated for many miles and many villages had to be evacuated.

On the 30th August, 1916, the waters of both rivers started to recede and soon after the rivers assumed their normal condition, in the old beds. Loss of property and cattle was very considerable, but loss of human life is not reported.

In 1923 there was another flood but it never attained the magnitude of the 1916 one, which to living memory has been the severest that Hamirpur has experienced."

Substitute " ," for " ; " after "Mahoba " and delete " after cutting across the north-western corner of Banda Tahsil it."

The Hamirpur District forests were transferred from afforestation Division to the Banda Forest Division on the formation of the latter in the year, 1918. These forests were acquired in 1912 and were reserved by notification nos. 1851/I-342, dated the 16th September, 1915, 1194/I-342, dated the 30th June, 1916, 1198/I-342, dated the 30th June, 1916, and 1202/I-342, dated the 30th June, 1916.

Immediately after the reservation of the Kunehta Forest, an exchange of land was sanctioned for straightening the boundary. As a result an area of 117.66 acres was deforested under notification no. 174/XIV—36, dated the 8th February, 1918 and in place of this an area of 112.36 acres was " reserved " under notification no. 176/XIV—36, dated the 8th February, 1918, placing the total area of Kunehta Forest at 2,789 acres.

Accordingly, four blocks, one with an area of 2,789 acres in villages Kunehta, Neoria, Chaksona, Bhogaicha and Tehar; the second with an area of 228 acres in village Dhungawan; the third with an area of 1,660 acres in village Bandhur Buzurg and Chilehta, and the fourth with an area of 1,339 acres in Panwari and Bijrari, were formed.

The first three blocks are in Tahsil Maudaha and the fourth block in Pargana Kulpahar of Tahsil Mahoba.

The cost of acquisition for this area was Rs.67,443.

There is no record to show if larger game animals were shot after 1895 except that a tiger was shot this summer near Jalalpur, Tahsil Rath.

Fifty-four breeding bulls were distributed in thae district and 48 of them are still at stud. The former figure includes 26 bulls purchased and supplied for breeding purposes by the District Board out of the grant-in-aid given them by the Board of Agriculture.

The last stock census taken in 1930 showed that there were in the district 159,084 bulls and bullocks, 140,415 cows, 4,136 male buffaloes and 53,740 female buffaloes, together with young stock numbering 46,522. There were 64,359 ploughs and 2.4 cattle were found allotted to each plough. If male buffaloes are also included in the plough cattle, the percentage rises to 2.55.

Page 19, Sheep and goats

The stock census of 1930 disclosed the number of sheep and goats in the district to be 44,786 and 156,620, respectively.

Pages 19 and 20, Other animals

The stock census of 1930 gave 132 males, 6,243 ponies, 464 camels and 754 donkies.

During the year 1931-32, 1,677 deaths from various diseases were recorded; rinderpest accounting for the larger portion of these, amounting to 1,549.

The number of peripatetic Veterinary Assistants have been increased to 3. The number of animals treated in 1931-32 was 5,988. The substantial rise in the number of animals treated in a measure mirrors the growing confidence the people have in the Veterinary Department.

Pages 21—22, Rainfall

There is nothing very particular to add under this head save that Hamirpur has still the lowest average with 33·25 inches while Rath and Mandaha record an average of 35·20 and 35·58 inches respectively—Mahoba continues to have the highest average of 37·82 inches in the district.

Page 22, Health

Judged from the rates per thousand, the healthiest year during the past decade was 1,927 with the death rate at 21·20 per mille, and the most unhealthy year 1930, when the death rate rose to 45·33 per mille. From 1922 to 1931, the births averaged 18,460 or 39·94 per thousand, while the deaths averaged 15,329 or 33·65 per thousand.

Since the census of 1921, the total population of the district has increased by 37,366 or a percentage of 8.

Fever continues to take the highest toll in mortality, the percentage from 1922 to 1930 being as high as 71·6 of the total number of deaths.

Page 23, Cholera

During the last decade, the worst year was 1930 which recorded 974 deaths. The better part of the decade enjoyed complete or partial immunity from the disease.

Page 23, Smallpox

Vaccination is increasing in favour and this is responsible for the extremely low incidence of deaths from smallpox, the worst year in this respect being 1926 with 102 deaths.

Barring the year 1924 which claimed 403 deaths, the district has enjoyed almost complete immunity from plague.

In the year 1918 this district, as elsewhere, suffered from a serious outbreak of influenza which caused an unparalleled mortality for the district. During the same year there was widespread drought in the district and the two calamities wrought havoc amongst all classes but particularly the agriculturalists.

The census of 1931 gives the following figures :

Insane 78, deaf mutes 283.

Blind 2,515, lepers 187.

Four of the above persons were returned as suffering from more than one infirmity. Neglect in treatment in the earlier stages in diseases of the eye among children is probably responsible for the increase in the number of blind persons.

Pages 25 to 27, System of agriculture

A few zamindars and well-to-do tenants have begun to grow improved variety of sugar-cane and wheat in Rath and part of Mahoba tahsil. The introduction of a new type of sugar-cane crushing machine has entirely replaced the old "kohlus", while in a few villages in Rath Tahsil, improved varieties of cotton are being sown.

Page 28, Cultivated area

The cultivated area has risen to 8,34,517 acres or 53.45 per cent. of the total area in 1932. Parganas Rath and Sumerpur have the highest percentage in cultivated area which stands at 63 per cent. of the total area. Pargana Mahoba which had the reputation of being the least cultivated, has been superseded in this respect by the pargana of Jalalpur which has a percentage of 42 as against Mahoba's 47 of total area.

Page 28, Culturable land

The culturable land including as usual the small area under groves now comprises 31 per cent. of the total area of the district. Thus there are still possibilities of extension in cultivation.

Page 29, Harvest

Due to increased facilities in irrigation by reason of the extension of canal system in the parganas of Rath, Jalalpur and Kulpahar there has been a steady increase in the rabi area. In 1932 the kharif harvest was 49.2 per cent. and the rabi 51.4 per cent. of the total cropped area.

The area under sugar-cane has also risen to 3,671 acres.

Due to world depression Juar was sold at the rate of a maund and in places $1\frac{1}{2}$ maunds per rupee in 1931-32. There was also a fall in price of other food grains which spelt disaster for agriculturists in general

Page 30, Cotton

Cotton still continues to be a valuable kharif crop in the district but its cultivation is restricted to irrigated areas, in the Rath Tahsil.

Page 30, Til

Til is still a popular crop in the southern part of the district and has been fetching a fair price even in these days of depression.

Page 25 - 27, Sugar-cane implements and methods

The old system of cane cultivation still prevails and the only alteration that has recently taken place is that iron presses are now used instead of the old wooden ones, for crushing the cane. This year a small sugar factory was also started at Bela Tal.

The construction of embankments within the last 24 years has proved of immense value to the agriculturists. A considerable number of them were constructed during the years under review. The Goendi embankment was completed in 1914 at a cost of about Rs.9,200. The extensive embankments of Kamaharia costing about Rs.29,200 and Patanpur costing about Rs.18,600 were completed in 1919 and 1924 respectively.

Mundera embankment no. 1 was constituted in 1917 by famine labour. In addition to the above, 15 more were constructed in villages Para, [Khandehi ;Lodhan, Naraich, Mahera, Kumhupur, Bidokhar, Deogaon, Gahra, Surha, Mundera (no. 3), Chandi Kalan, Sahorapur, Lodhpur, Narainpur and Para Raipura between the years 1915 and 1918 at a total cost of Rs.37,900. All the above embankments are maintained by the Irrigation Branch of the Public Works Department except the last four which were handed over to the zamindars.

There has been a considerable increase in irrigated area due to the harnessing of water in certain tanks for irrigation by means of canals taking off from them. 32 miles of canal comprises the system which takes off from the tank of Majhgawan (including Chhatarwara) constructed in 1914 at a cost of Rs.4,37,000. The construction of the Kulpahar tank canal system, 5 miles long, followed in 1924 at a cost of Rs.94,000. The year 1929 witnessed greater activity in this respect. Three canal systems aggregating 51 miles in length were constructed at Bela Sagar, Raipura and Kamalpura, at a total cost of Rs.13,05,000. The total area of the district commanded by the tanks and reservoirs under the Ken Canal Division is 134 square miles. The irrigated area within the last quarter of a century has almost doubled itself. The area irrigated in 1931-32 rose to 38,687 acres of which 27,019 acres were irrigated from canals, 11,094 acres from wells and the rest from tanks and other sources. In the area commanded by canals the tendency is to grow more sugar-cane. Most of the schemes of the large tanks have now been constructed and further extension of protection can be most economically carried out by making new embankments.

The irrigation operations in the Hamirpur District were formerly controlled by the Executive Engineer, Dhasan Canal Division, Nowgong, but from 15th October, 1931, the division was abolished owing to retrenchment and its work divided as noted below :

(a) The main Dhasan Canal was transferred to the control of the Jhansi Division, Betwa Canal, Jhansi.

(b) All the tanks in tahsil Mahoba and the embankments in tahsils Mahoba and Maudaha and reservoirs with their irrigation systems namely Majhgawan, Bela Tal, Kulpahar, Kamalpura, Raipura Mahoba Lakes (i.e. the area to the west of Nowgong-Harpalpur-Panwari Road) was transferred to the Ken Canal Division, Banda.

Page 40, History of Dhasan Canal

The District Gazetteer of 1909 contained the prophecy that a large increase of irrigation from Dhasan Canal would be a feature of the future. The prophecy has been fulfilled. The years 1913 onwards constituted a continuous march of progress in this direction.

The following bare details are interesting :

The culturable area commanded by Dhasan Canal in the Hamirpur District amounts to 154,500 acres.

During the years 1913 and 1914 the following works were completed at costs noted against each in brackets—

(1) Pahari Dam (701,994), (2) Pahari Dam Causeway (23,328), (3) Right and left bank diversion roads (33,377), (4) Pahari Kotra Ghat and Alipura Inspection Houses (15,396) Kumhariya, Chilli, Bhainsai and Dhanauri Minors (17,393), and Girwar and Chilli escapes (29,701).

Works completed during 1914-15.

1. Rehunta and Bokhar Escapes (8,184), (2) Pachkhura Inspection House (7,061), (3) Jhinna Bira, Jarakhar, Alampur, Bokhar and Jitkhiri Minors (23,962) (4) Nauranga, Jaria and Amgaon Distributaries (31,436) .

Works completed during 1915-16:

(1) Benwar Inspection House (11,672) (2), Sarila Distributary (6,721), (3) Antra, Seonhari, Haibatpur, Kadaura, Gugarwara, Barwa, Kotra, Naipura and Itwan Minors (49,961) and 4) Lachura Dam (5,67,423).

Causeways over Kurdana Nala and Pahari Weir (2,295).

To connect closely the whole system two telegraph offices were constructed in 1928-29 at Kotra and Kulenda (5,167).

The Dhasan Canal Division was abolished in October, 1931, and as a result Pahari and Lahchura Dams with the entire Dhasan Canal irrigating system extending to Rath, Sarila, Jalalpur, Islampur, etc. (i.e.) the area lying to the west of Nowgong-Harpalpur-Panwari Road) were transferred to the jurisdiction of the Executive Engineer, Jhansi Division, Betwa Canal.

Famine was declared in this district in the year 1913-14, the cause being a bad drought. The most serious feature was the failure of the fodder supply which was unprecedented.

Pages 54-56, Prices

During the Great War, prices of all commodities rose considerably with the result that in the year 1919, the price of grain reached the highest figure ever attained for wheat, gram and bajra were being sold at 4.12 seers per rupee and jowar at 5 seers per rupee. From 1920 prices began to fall again but gradually and by 1930 they had reached the pre-war rate. In the revenue year ending 30th September, 1932, the average prices of grain was : wheat 14 seers, gram 21.3 seers, bajra 26 seers, and jowar 27 seers per rupee.

A sugar factory has recently been opened at Bela Tal by an enterprising company belonging to Jhansi.

The School of Art at Charkhari does not exist now.

The hay baling press at Kulpahar has ceased to function. Hay baling used to be carried out at the cotton press which exists there but cotton ginning and baling having ceased three years ago, the press is no longer used.

Page 57, Agricultural farm

To demonstrate improved methods of cultivation with a view to spread knowledge in the use of new implements of husbandry and ploughing, and for better seed distribution an agricultural farm has been opened at Bela Tal by the Government. An Agricultural Inspector is maintained at Government expense while the management is in the hands of the District Board. Seed godowns have recently been opened at Mahoba and Jaitpur to bring seeds of improved variety within easy reach of cultivators.

The Railway no longer maintains out-agencies at Rath and Charkhari.

After page 59, Exhibitions

To encourage handicraft amongst the ladies of the district, a Ladies' Art and Handicraft Exhibition under the auspices of the Hamirpur Mahila Samaj was held at Hamirpur in November 1931.

For the first time in the history of Bundelkhand a District Agricultural and Industrial Exhibition was held at Mahoba in November, 1932, with a strong Executive Committee presided over by the Collector. Departments of Public Health and Hygiene, Child and Maternity Welfare and Agriculture were represented at the Exhibition. In addition, demonstrations were given on rural uplift and child and maternity welfare and the care of poultry.

The section from Juhi (Cawnpore) to Hamirpur Road (32.92 miles) was opened on 21st April, 1913 and the section from Hamirpur Road to Khairada (42—84 miles) on 20th July, 1914. This section known as the Cawnpore-Banda section was connected with the Jhansi-Manikpur section at Khairada and thence carried on to its terminus—Banda Junction.

On the said section there were only three railway stations within the district, but on the transfer of the Khanna-Ichauli Circle from the district of Banda to this district in 1925, two more railway stations, Akona and Ichauli were added to this district.

The opening of this section has secured the trade of the towns of Maudaha and Sumerpur which once used to pass along the Cawnpore-Mahoba metalled road across the Jumna and the Betwa Rivers at Hamirpur. Though Sumerpur has lost ground because of internal dissensions, Maudaha owes its expansion in trade to this railway.

The Karipahari station on the Jhansi-Manikpur section has been closed for economic reason.

Page 60, Local Roads

Metalled local roads in the district now are 90 miles $6\frac{1}{2}$ furlongs. The Mahoba-Kulpabar Road of 14 miles and $7\frac{1}{2}$ furlongs has been metalled throughout. The unmetalled local roads total 417 miles $5\frac{1}{2}$ furlongs.

Page 61, Trade routes

When the District Gazetteer was originally compiled it was remarked that "the chief need of the district at present is the metalling of the Hamirpur-Rath Roads" subsequently when the Gazetteer was under revision in 1912-13 it was remarked that "with the construction of the Cawnpore-Banda Railway and the removal of the headquarters from Hamirpur to Mahoba, the need for such a road has ceased."

Now that the scheme has failed to fructify it is very necessary to metal the 17 miles of road from Muskara to Maudaha as this would act as a railway feeder road as well as an all weather road from Hamirpur to Rath. The importance of such a construction cannot be over emphasized and it will immensely improve the communications of the district. If and when the Hamirpur-Kalpi Road is metalled it is likely to revive the old trade route between the two towns.

The ferries over the Betwa and the Jumna in the immediate neighbourhood of Hamirpur on the metalled road were leased out together in 1932 for a period of seven years for Rs.20,800

Due to the construction of Cawnpore-Banda Railway, the ferry at Surauli Buzurg which used to be an important ferry in the past has lost its importance.

Page 62, Bungalows and encamping grounds

The inspection houses said to have been located at Puraini and Kaitha were never built by the Canal Department.

Canal inspection houses were, however, built at Ajnar, Bela Tal, Benwar, Supa and Bharwara during the last 18 years.

The District Board inspection house at Chhani was accidentally burnt down but it is in process of reconstruction.

The Lahchura inspection house has since been built.

The encamping ground at Sumerpur has been relinquished in favour of the zamindars.

According to the Census of 1931, the population of the district has risen to 502,681 recording an increase of 37,366 or 8 per cent. over the figures of last census.

The density is now 266 per square mile.

There is an all-round increase in the population of tahsils of the district Maudaha being responsible for the highest percentage of increase (+10·3' and Hamirpur for the lowest (+4·9).

Page 65, Urban and Rural

Due to the absence of any town in its real sense and to lack of opportunity of employment or trade there is no rush to the towns in the district. As disclosed by the census of 1931, of the total number of inhabitants 91·5 congregate in villages and only 8·5 per cent. dwell in towns. The percentage is almost the same that obtained a quarter of a century back.

Page 66, Sex.

Hamirpur is losing its reputation for a more even proportion of the sexes than any other district in Bundelkhand. In 1911 the disproportion in favour of the males was 1·9 per cent. As gleaned from the Census of 1931 this disparity has been greatly accentuated. There are 257,028 males and 245,661 females giving a difference of 4·6 per cent.

Classified according to religion, the population in 1931 contained 468,941 Hindus, 32,795 Muhammadans, 423 Christians, 108 Jains, 411 Hindu Aryas, 9 Sikhs and 2 Zorastrians. The increase in the number of Hindu Aryas is noticeable and to a less extent that of Christians and Jains. The Parsis have disappeared from the district and the Sikhs have also fallen. The Brahmans after recording continuous decline in the past to census have this time recorded an increase of 1,446. The greatest increase is recorded by Chamars who have gone up by 16,408. The Thakurs have increased by 2,019, Lodhis by 2,314, Ahirs by 4,236 and Kumhars by 3,784. Amongst the Musalmans, the Sheikhs have increased by 3,047, Pathans by 1,486 and Saiyeds by 189 while Behnas have gone down by 276.

Page 84, Chief Proprietors and prominent families.

The once prosperous family of Seth Shyam Karan and Seth Shambhu Karan of Banda has now fallen on evil days. Seth Shyam Karan and his sons—Seths Jai Karan, Ganesh Karan, Moti Karan and Tara Karan—are all dead. The surviving members of the family are Seth Shyam Karan grandsons, Seth Bishan Karan, Anand Karan and Basant Karan and a great grandson Raj Karan who reside at Banda and together pay Rs.3,268-8 in land revenue in tahsil Maudaha. Seth Bishan Karan also lives at Banda and pays a revenue of Rs.3,065 in the same tahsil. He unfortunately fell on evil days, was caught in the vortex of the civil disobedience movement and was convicted and sentenced for a political offence.

By the transfer of the Khanna-Ichauli Circle to this district in 1925, one more prominent family came within the jurisdiction of this district. That is the Dube family of Khandeh. The most enterprising member of the family was Hatti Dube but his descendants have lapsed into insignificance. The only direct descendant in the fourth degree is Gaya Prasad who possesses no landed property in his name. The property has passed into the hands of the descendants of the other brothers of Hatti Dube. The family possesses an estate of 2,064,156 acres. Pandit Rameshwar Prasad Bajpai of village Ittarra, Tahsil Ghatampur, District Cawnpore, has inherited a considerable share of property. Pandit Sukhdeoji Sahai, grand son of Chandi Din Dube, a prominent member of the family has by his wise management been able to reduce the debt on the estate incurred in the past considerably. Education is spreading in the family and three boys are prosecuting their studies higher in the University.

Rao Hanumant Singh who succeeded his father Rao Pancham Singh is also dead. He has now been succeeded by Dewan Bhujbal Singh of Salaiya.

Page 89, Changes in rents

Due to world causes there has been within the two years a cataclysmic fall in prices of agricultural commodities. This slump in prices had considerable effect on the rent paying capacity of the tenant, and consequently varying remissions in rents were ordered by the Government in 1339 Fasli and 1340 Fasli for all classes of tenants. Corresponding remissions in land revenue were also granted.

As a measure of economy tahsil Kulpahar was abolished in 1925 and amalgamated with tahsil Mahoba reducing the number of tahsils in the district to four.

Of late it has been found more convenient to place one Deputy Collector in charge of Rath and Hamirpur Sub-divisions and another in charge of the Maudaha Sub-division with treasury.

There is no District Surveyor or Engineer now stationed at Hamirpur.

There are Special Magistrates at Hamirpur and Mahoba? Kanth and an Honorary Bench of Magistrates at Rath.

The Special Magistrate at Hamirpur is also an Honorary Assistant Collector with second class powers.

It is proposed to have a Bench of Honorary Munsifs in the near future at Mahoba.

Page 98, Future changes

The question of the abolition of the district or the transfer of the headquarters of the district from Hamirpur to Mahoba has been shelved for the present.

Add the following paragraph after line 2: With effect from 1st November 1911, new division under a separate Commissioner was created comprising the four districts of Jhansi, Jalaun, Banda and Hamirpur. This measure was prompted by the desire to bring into one division all districts comprising a part of country which has peculiar characteristics of its own and which formed a somewhat anomalous appendage to the Allahabad Division.

After page 111, Quinquennial Settlements

The first settlement was made in 1912 followed by three other revisions. The last revision was made in 1932-33. The quinquennial revision of parganas Hamirpur and Maudaha was due in 1338 Fasli, but was postponed on account of Census operations. In the subsequent year the revision of parganas Sumerpur and Jalalpur fell due, but had again to be postponed owing to the preparation of statements of rent and revenue remissions coupled with abnormal agricultural conditions. The revision of parganas Muskara and Rath became due in 1340 Fasli. Consequently all the six parganas Sumerpur, Muskara, Maudaha, Rath, Jalalpur and Hamirpur comprising three entire sub-divisions were re-settled in 1932-33. The net result of the settlement was a total increase of revenue of Rs.6,819-4-1 distributed among the parganas as follows: Muskara Rs.3,126 Maudaha Rs.4,038, Rath Rs.325, Jalalpur Rs.1,759-15, Hamirpur Rs.1,019-3-11 and Sumerpur Rs.1,410.

Page 112, Police stations

The Police Station of Kashipur was transferred to Mahob-Kanth in 1921, and the police station of Lalpura was abolished in 1929. Consequent upon the transfer of Khanna-Ichauli Circle to this district, the police station of Khanna was added to the list in 1925 bringing the number of police stations to 18 (village Gondi is now included in P. S. Khanna). Due to the unsuitability of the soil, the construction of a police building at Mamna was postponed, for the idea was to transfer the Thana there from Jalalpur.

The Kulpahar Thana is now located in the old Tahsili building.

The regular police force now consists of 3 Inspectors, 31 Sub-Inspectors, 43 head constables, 90 naiks and 389 constables.

The number of road and village police has increased to 487 chowkidars.

Page 114, Jails

A lock-up was constructed at Mahoba in 1925 at a cost of Rs.9,539.

Page 115, Excise

The contract supply system introduced in 1911 still continues.

The Native States of Charkhori and Panna also take their issues from the bonded warehouses in this district, Chhatarpur State has ceased taking issues.

The rate of duty on country spirit is Rs.4-8 per L. P. gallon. There are no issues of 25 or 35 U. P. in the district.

The settlement of the shops was done by auction system until 1st April, 1922, when it was replaced by the Graduated Surcharge System which has lasted upto the present day. Under Excise Commissioner's letter no. 667/C, dated the 23rd February, 1933, it was decided to reintroduce auction system in respect of country spirit sheps only into the district with effect from 1st May, 1933. The Surcharge System bred illicit distillation, and to supress this growing evil the restoration of the former system was considered expedient. Sales have taken place accordingly and have resulted in an income of Rs.21,185 as against Rs.8,407 the average income for five years under the surcharge system.

The present number of shops licensed to sell country spirit is 38.

The graduated surcharge system has taken the place of tahsilwar contract system.

Charas has completely ousted ganja from the district. Due to successive bad harvests and continued economic depression consumption of charas and bhang has fallen.

The number of hemp drugs shop in 1933 was 33.

The retail price has been considerably raised.

The present rates are charas Rs.120 per seer, bhang is Rs.5 per seer and ganja (of which there is no sale) Rs.100 per seer.

Page 116, Opium

The consumption of opium has further decreased. The retail price of opium had also been considerably increased, which is Rs.120 per seer. The price to licensed vendors is, however, only Rs.70 per seer (Rs. 18-6 price and Rs.51-10 duty).

There were 20 shops licensed for the sale of opium in 1933.

The collection and assessment of income-tax was taken over by the Income-tax Department in 1921-22.

Due to financial stringency the limit of exemption of incomes from taxation has been reduced temporarily from Rs.2,000, to Rs.1,000.

The district is included in the Cawnpore circle and the income-tax officer of that circle is in charge of the district.

With the advent of the passing of the Income-tax Act there has been considerable progress made in the assessment of income-tax. Income-tax is a separate department and is well organized. Assessments are generally made on the basis of account books of the assesseees and a trained staff to examine the same is maintained. The result has been that income-tax revenue has increased.

The system of hearing appeals has also undergone a change, for appeals are now heard by Assistant Commissioners of Income-tax.

In 1932—33, 77 persons, were assessed to income-tax on incomes ranging from Rs.1,000 to Rs.10,000 and Rs.7108 was realized from them.

As an emergency measure, in 1932 a surcharge of 25 per cent. was imposed on all income-tax, but it is believed that the end of this financial year will see this removed.

There is no super tax paid in this district,

The Sub-Registrar at Mahoba is now a departmental officer.

Page 117, Stamps

In 1931-32 the receipts amounted to Rs.98,684 and of this Rs.16,784 was derived from non-judicial stamps and Rs.81,586 from the sale of court-fees stamps, including copies. The total charges during the same period have been Rs.1,452.

Page 118, Post Office

The branch post offices in Hamirpur City, Spencerganj and Lalpura have been abolished. A branch post office has recently been opened at Khandeh while two branch post offices at—Khanna and Ichauli—have come to this district along with the transfer of Khanna-Ichauli Circle from Banda to Hamirpur. Thus the number has been maintained at 24 with 16 branch offices and 8 sub-offices.

Sumerpur was again declared as a town area with effect from 1st April, 1920. Jaitpur has not been administered under Act II of 1914 since 1st April, 1925.

The town areas have joint electorates which elect five members and one chairman simultaneously at one election, except in the case of Town Area Hamirpur which elects six members and one chairman. Out of the members constituting Town Area Hamirpur four must be Hindus and two Muslims.

With a view to making better provision for Local Self-Government in rural areas and to train the people in self-Government, it was considered expedient to confer wider powers and responsibility on them. The District Board Act (X of 1922) was the consequence. The Collector is no longer the Chairman. The District Board elects its own Chairman and twenty members (five Muslims and 15 non-Muslims) who hold office for four years. Three members are nominated by the Government to represent the depressed classes and other special interests.

The administration of the Hamirpur District Board had been unsatisfactory for some years past. A number of financial scandals, in which the members of the Board were implicated, had occurred. The Secretary and the Engineer were both arrested, prosecuted and convicted for embezzling funds belonging to the Board. Several other prosecutions were set on foot. For these and other reasons of mal-administration as well as to improve the Board's affairs, financial and educational, on a satisfactory basis the Local Government, under section 169 of the District Board Act, directed that, with effect from 1st March, 1931, the district board of Hamirpur be superseded for a period of 2 years. On 1st March, 1931, the Chairman and all the members of the Board vacated office. During the period of supersession, the District Magistrate was appointed, under section 171(b), to exercise and perform the powers and duties of the Board while a Deputy Collector was appointed an extra officer to look after affairs of the District Board.

To make better provision for the superintendence of the department of Education, an education committee with its own elected Chairman was constituted by the District Board Amendment Act of 1928. This committee consists of 12 members, 8 elected by the District Board out of its own members and 4 from outside representing the depressed classes, female education and the District Muhammadan Education Committee and the fourth a trained teacher. The Deputy Inspector of Schools is the Secretary of the Education Committee.

There are now 10 secondary schools and one Government High School situated at the tahsil headquarters and at Sumerpur, Benwar, Muskara, Srinagar, Kulpabar and Panwari. The primary schools amount to 216 with 12,271 scholars (including 769 girls) and are maintained by the District Board. 73 other schools obtain grants in aid to the tune of Rs.10,388.

The private school at Rath teaching English has been abolished, but another such school has been opened at Mahoba.

There is a lower middle school for girls at Mahoba with 107 scholars on the roll. The number of primary schools for girls is 16 with 792 scholars. In addition to the above, there are two Government Girls' school at Rath and Mahoba with an enrolment of 160 scholars.

There are four Islamia schools with an enrolment of 241, 14 makhtabs with an enrolment of 494, 6 Sanskrit Pathshalas and 12 schools for depressed classes with an enrolment of 419. Two schools at Rath and Mahoba exist for sweepers exclusively.

A weaving school with 10 scholars receiving stipends is maintained at Mahoba. There is also a "night school" with 23 scholars at Mahoba.

The Census of 1931 shows the number of literates to be 27,162 or 5.40 per cent. of the total population. The percentage of literate males to male population is 9.97 and that of females to female population is .61. The literate male Hindus form 9.58 per cent. of the male Hindu population as compared with 14.56 per cent. of Muslim literate males with Muslim male population. The Hindu literate females are .45 per cent. of the female Hindu population as compared with 1.74 per cent. of the Muslim literate to females with Muslim female population.

The higher percentage of literacy amongst the Muham-madans is due to their smaller population and to the fact that they generally reside in urban areas.

The improvement in literacy is steady except in the case of females.

Pages 121 and 122, Medical Institutions

The Mission Dispensaries at Rath, Maudaha and Mahoba have been closed.

The quarters of the women sub-assistant surgeon in charge Female Wing, Hamirpur, were constructed in 1927 and the new police hospital constructed in 1930 at a cost of Rs.30,077. The old police hospital building being in a dilapidated condition made the construction of a new hospital imperative.

Page 122, Cattle pounds

The district now possesses 62 cattle pounds all under the management of the district board except those at Mahoba and Rath which are controlled by the notified areas. The Teia cattle pound has been abolished and 39 more added to the 23 existing from before.

Khandeh, tahsil Maudaha.

A village lying in 25° 34' N. and 80° 11' E distant 7 miles from Maudaha, west of the River Ken. The population in 1931 was 2,110 persons consisting chiefly of Dube Brahman and Bagri and Mauhar Rajputs. There is a School here and a market is held on Sunday and Wednesday. There are a number of Hindu temples, and those at the south-west corner of the village, begun but left unfinished by the Dubes, contain probably the finest modern stone carving in the district. The total area of the village is 6,747 acres. Formerly Khandeh was the headquarters of a paragana of the same name. This was ceded to the British in 1817 by Nana Govind Rao, when it was incorporated in the Banda District. Consequent on the transfer of the Khanna-Ichauli Circle to this district in 1925, it was included in tahsil Maudaha. The village rapidly declined and is now chiefly famous as the residence of the Dube family, who owned in 1881 a considerable tract of country, absorbed by very questionable means, by Hatti Dube.

The village possesses a primary school, a branch post office and an Aushdhalaya.

Khanna, tahsil Maudaha

A large village lying in 25°34' N. and 80°3' E. west of the Ken River on the metalled road from Hamirpur to Mahoba. It lies to the south of the tahsil and is the centre of a most precarious tract of country. The distance from Maudaha is 9 miles direct or 10½ miles by metalled road. The total area of the village is 4365 acres, and the population in 1931 consisted chiefly of Chamars. There is a military encamping ground and a police station to which is attached a rain-gauge. There is a primary school and also a branch post office.

For "no detailed working plan....." substitute "The Banda forests are partly 'Reserved' and partly 'Unclassed,' most of the former having been acquired about 1880-82 and reserved in 1890-91 and the latter having been taken under Government management on a special agreement between 1880 and 1890. The terms of this agreement, under which the profits were shared between Government and the zamindars on a 55 per cent. and 45 per cent. basis gave rise to the terms "pachpan paintalis forests," applied to the unclassified forests.

Prior to 1891, the forests were under the control of the Collector, and unregulated and irregular fellings were made for the extraction of ballies, firewood, charcoal and bamboos. No attempts were made to restrict grazing.

From 1891 onwards the forests were transferred to the control of the Forest Department, and in 1896 a rough scheme for their working on a 25 years' rotation was drawn up by Mr. J. M. Blanchfield, Extra Assistant Conservator of Forests. This scheme was originally intended for the reserved forests, but work under it was also extended to the unclassified forests.

In consequence of certain defects (the chief being the non-demarcation of annual felling areas on the ground and consequent difficulty in control), the abovementioned scheme was discontinued in 1911-12 in favour of regular plan of working drawn up by Mr. J. Whitehead, I.F.S. The chief features of the plan were the prescription of a 20 years rest period and removal of only dry and dead wood, and working of green bamboos on a 3 years cutting cycle. The condition of the crop and its reproduction over a large area soon disclosed however that [such a long rest period was unnecessary, and Mr. Whitehead's plan was revised in 1915-16 by Mr. G.O. Coombs, who prepared a fresh scheme which prescribed (a) the working of the forests under the "Coppice with standards" system on a rotation of 30 years [in all areas except Deori-Rajohan, (b) the working under the selection system for the extraction of ballies in Deori-Rajohan, the rotation being fixed at 30 years and the exploitable girth at 16", (c) the harvesting of available Khair trees of above 12" in girth on a felling cycle of 10 years for the manufacture of Katha in a Khair working circle overlapping the other management units and (d) the extraction of bamboos on a 3 years cutting cycle in a separate bamboo working circle also overlapping the other management units. The extraction of dry and fallen wood was also prescribed on a 5 years cycle. The scheme also provided for the closure of felled coppice with standards coupes to grazing for 7 years after fellings, and also for subsidiary cultural operations for the betterment of the crop.

Mr. Coomb's scheme remained in force till 1922-23, when it was revised by Mr. Sita Rampuri, who divided the whole area into two overlapping units of management, viz., the coppice working circle and the bamboo working circle. The coppice working circle on a rotation of 20 years was further divided into 11 felling series or sub-units of management in order to top all sources of labour and to improve grazing facilities. Blocks and compartments were also defined. The silvi-cultural system was simple coppice, with the proviso that a number of seed-bearers were to be retained, and also healthy trees along the streams and near the aris for the purpose of reducing erosion. Mahua trees were also largely retained to meet food supplies of local right-holders and also Kawa trees for cart-making.

Felled areas were to be kept closed for grazing for 10 years. Mr. Puri's plan also prescribed certain intermediate fellings, which brought in on the whole little more in revenue than they actually cost to carry out, and also a number of subsidiary cultural operations most of which were imperfectly carried out, at some cost to the department. The bamboo working circle was worked on a cutting cycle of 3 years, with certain restrictions and rules for cutting. This working plan also provided for the fire protection of the forests by means of internal and external cleared fire-lines most of which are still maintained.

The last revision of the scheme of working (or working plan) of the Banda forests was carried out in 1932—33 by Mr. Jai Raj Singh, I.F.S. The new plan follows generally the lines of its predecessors, the only system for these poor xerophytic fuel forests being simple coppice on a short rotation. The only new feature introduced in the revised plan is the more systematic exploitation of Khair (Acacia catechu), for Katha by selection fellings on a 15 years cycle. The period of closure of felled coppice areas to grazing has also been reduced to 5 years, with the proviso that if the coupe under closure is burnt and severely damaged the period of closure will be extended to 5 years from the date of burning. All mahua trees are to be retained and certain cultural operations are prescribed.

The rules regarding cutting of bamboos have also been made more strict, and certain cultural operations for bamboos have been prescribed on an experimental basis.

The present scale of grazing fees for non-right-holders both in reserved and unclassed forests are as follows :

Annas 2 per cow or bullock per annum.

Annas 4 per buffalo per annum.

The average annual revenue of the forests for the past 10 years has amounted to Rs.37,640 and the forecast for next 15 years is approximately Rs.30,000 per annum.

The financial results of the past and also the future forecast show that these forests can do little more than pay their way, but though from the revenue point of view they are relatively unimportant, they are of considerable importance as fodder famine reserves and are capable of supplying 2 to 3 lakhs of maunds of fodder to the Allahabad, Jhansi, and Agra Civil Divisions, which are more liable to fodder famine than other divisions in the province. The last occasions on which fodder was supplied in time of famine were in 1928—29 and 1929—30 when a total of 70,024 maunds of fodder were supplied to the Agra Civil Division.

Forest villages

There were originally 13 cultivation chaks or areas excluded from the forests and under the management of the Collector, out of which the 10 detailed below have now all been declared reserved forests :

1. Lakhanpur	In Chauri-Donda Reserve.
2. Jhil	In Ranipur Reserve.
3. Rajohan	Ditto.
4. Deori	Ditto.
5. Chauri I	In Chauri-Donda Reserve.
6. Do. II	Ditto.
7. Parasin	Ditto.
8. Matdar	In Matdar Reserve.
9. Amchurnarwa	In Manikpur Reserve.
10. Kolhua Chak no. III		..	In Kolhua Reserve.

Three chaks in Kolhua Reserve still remain unreserved and under the management of the Collector.

Government has approved the continuance as forest villages of Chauri (5 acres), Parasin (9 acres), Jhil (33 acres), Rajohan (123 acres), Deori Gauhanian (404 acres), Lakhanpur (67 acres), Amchurnarwa (65.29 acres) and Matdar (19.88 acres), but at present only five are actually being cultivated at Lakhanpur, Chauri, Parasin, Matdar and Amchurnarwa.

The object of these forest villages is to supply labour for forest works and efforts are being made to colonize the uncultivated chaks.

An additional chak Chulhi adjoining Manikpur Reserve, and 719.34 acres in areas, has recently been transferred to the control of the Forest Department, and partition proceedings are still in progress. About one half of its area will eventually be constituted as reserved forest and a portion of this will probably remain as a forest village.

Ochre is mined at present on a 5 years' lease in Donda forest near Lakhanpur, and is exported to Calcutta for use in the paint trade.

For paragraph on the Garhchapa Tank substitute "The Garhchapa tank was abandoned soon after work was started on it as it was not regarded as a suitable protective work. The project would be again examined in the near future to see whether anything further can be done. In the Karwi and Mau Tahsils large reservoirs at Jaiwanti Khandeha and Aunjhar have recently been completed. The first two have not done much irrigation so far as owing to low rainfall they did not receive adequate storage while the third is doing well and should irrigate a 1,000 acres or more of rabi area in the near future. There are numerous other small reservoirs in these tahsils which do fairly well in a normal season."

Pages 58—62

For chapter on the Ken Canal substitute "The construction of the Ken Canal has encouraged the cultivation of late rice which is now fully developed, on the Attra Branch and Baberu Distributary about 25,003 acres being sown annually on the channels. Rice has not made much progress on the Banda Branch where the soil is heavier and better suited for rabi crop only."

In the year 1932 the rains failed in September and October and the Canal irrigated over 94,000 acres in rabi 1340 in addition to over 27,000 acres in khari 1340 which would show that the system is a valuable protective work.

Famine conditions are not likely to develop in future in the area commanded by the system which has established the population and has resulted in the breaking up of large areas of uncultivated land. There is normally enough water for late khari and rabi but the canal cannot give a supply for sugar-cane and other early khari crops.

The lower 16 miles of the Alona Distributary in the Banda Tahsil have been abandoned as the soil in the command was largely heavy Mar which does not require irrigation except in an unexceptionally dry year. One new minor 3 miles long is under construction for the irrigation of an area on the left bank of the Banda Branch in pargana Girwan while two other minors from the Attra Branch to serve the light soil in Karwi, Oran and Bagha villages in Baberu Tahsil are projected.

In 1920 the average price of wheat was 6 seers, barley 8 seers, rice 5 seers, juar 8 seers, gram 8 seers and dal arhar 4 seers per rupee. From 1929 the slump in prices commenced with the result that in 1933 the average price of wheat has been 13 seers, barley 17 seers, rice 11 seers, juar 21 seers, gram 19 seers, dal arhar 10 seers per rupee. The agriculturists have been hit hard by this slump in prices the Government are having recourse to legislature in introducing several Acts with a view to relieve them of their consequent indebtedness. The labourers have not suffered from the depression.

For chapter on wages substitute "the general rise in wages commenced at the end of the great European War and continued till the beginning of the slump in prices. It was more marked in the case of skilled labourers such as carpenters, masons and smiths, etc. because the people of Banda have begun to construct pakka houses in place of kachcha ones. The slump in prices created an immediate reaction on wages the fall of which was further accentuated to a slight extent by the reduction of pay of government servants temporary or permanent. The present level of wages in the city is mason and carpenter 12 annas, per diem, smith Re.1, unskilled labourers such as Chamars and Koris, 5 annas, women and children 3 annas 6 pies per day, in rural areas the wages are mostly in kind and are about half of what they are in city. A ploughman gets 3 annas per day on an average.

For the paragraph on bank substitute "The existence of co-operative societies in this district dates as far back as 1901 but the movement gained a sound and firm footing after the registration of the Banda District Co-operative Bank, Ltd., Banda, in the year 1912. There are at present 114 village societies and 5 urban societies affiliated to this bank. The major portion of these societies exists in Karwi, Naraini and Banda Tahsils. The charge of societies near about Bargarh in Mau Tahsil was held by the Allahabad District Co-operative Bank, Ltd., Allahabad. These societies were wound up by that Bank after some time and no longer exists. Of the 119 societies affiliated to the Banda District Bank 94 are situated in this district of Banda and the remaining 25 are situated in Maudha Tahsil of Hamirpore District.

The working capital of the bank on the 30th June, 1933, amounted to Rs.4,27,341 and its own capital to Rs.1,52,763. The working capital of the primary societies on that date amounted to Rs.5,41,346 and their own capital to Rs.2,29,387. The banks' investment in these societies amounted to Rs.3,33,364 (Rs.2,36,741 in societies in the Banda District and Rs.96,623 in the Hamirpur District)."

More than half a dozen of these primary societies, namely Kalinjar Pangra, Nauhai, Panchampore, Ruenchi, Parokhar Jadid and Baryarpore are working with their own capital and do not borrow from the bank. The deposits held by the bank on the 30th June, 1933, amounted to Rs.2,51,811. The deposits were always punctually repaid on demand and the bank has established a reputation of prompt dealings and fair and honest transactions so that there is always a rush of depositors. The bank's present difficulty is in the recovery of arrears from societies and their members.

A very large number of awards are outstanding and their realizations is a matter of great labour and difficulty. It is evident that advances were made in the past without due care and discretion. The policy has now changed, and loans are not made without reasonable grounds to expect punctual repayment.
